

Fort Recovery Archaeology

Family Fun Fest

Sunday, October 2nd 2011

12:00 to 4:00

Fort Recovery Historical Society/State Museum grounds
1 Fort Site Street, Fort Recovery, Oh 45846

Sponsored by

The Fort Recovery Historical Society and State Museum
The Blue Jacket Chapter of the Archaeological Society of Ohio
Ball State University- Applied Archaeology Laboratories

---

!!!! See and Do !!!

FLINT KNAPPER; ATLATL DEMONSTRATIONS; INDIAN CHUNKEY GAME; HIEROGLYPHICS TENT

Archaeology Activities for kids: (mock “digs”, hand pump lithic drill, clay cord making, touch and feel artifact displays, etc.)

Also: face painting, feather hair braiding, S’Mores-making

Displays by Numerous ARTIFACT COLLECTORS

Artifact Identification - Bill Pickard, OHS Collections & Archaeology

Speakers/Presentations

1:00 – Ken Soward – History Teacher/Artifact Collector/Program Presenter “Greenville Treaty Line-Fort Loramie”

2:00 – Bill Pickard – OHS Archaeologist/Writer/Presenter – “Ohio Mounds and Earthworks – The Last 200 Years”

3:00 – Ball State University Department of Anthropology- Chris Keller and students
“Sharing Discoveries, Secrets and Battle/Fort-Artifacts”

All Results from the NPS American Battlefield Protection Program Grant – the Summer Archaeology Work at Fort Recovery!

---

Visit: historic fort and blockhouses – displays, DVD’s, activities in each; log house and tool cabin with authentic pioneer skills; recently renovated museum – prehistoric collections – food and drink

All activities/exhibits on grounds are free.

Discounted Museum Admission just this day 12-4:00. -$3.00 adults, (regular $5.00) $1.00 students (reg. $2.00, 7-12)
Call 419-375-4384 or check www.fortrecoverymuseum.com for more information.